

School climate is the learning environment created through the interaction of human relationships, physical setting and psychological atmosphere.

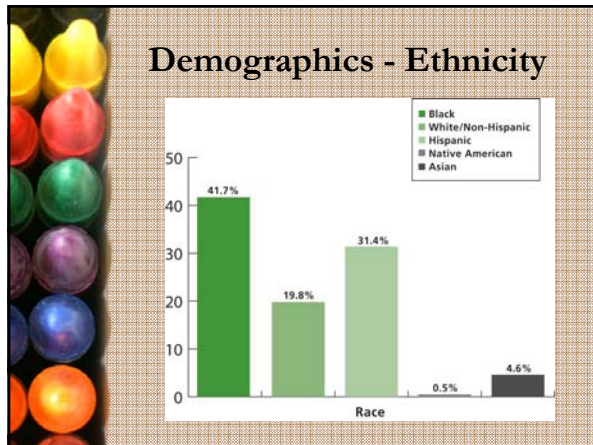

Perkins, 2006

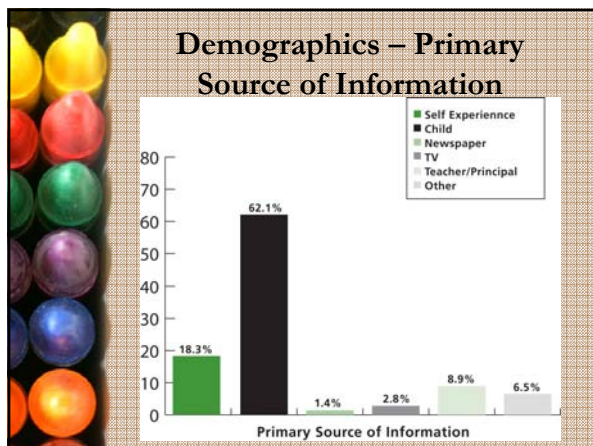

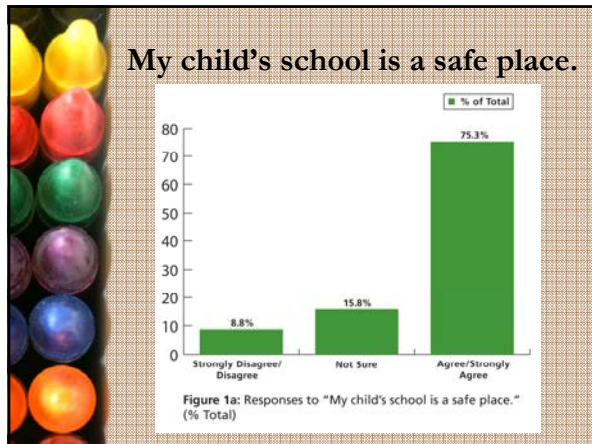

American School Climate Survey[®]
Parental Survey Constructs

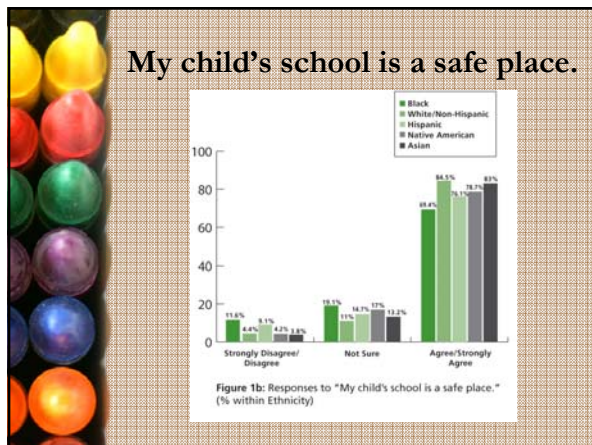

- Safety
- Bullying
- Expectations for Success
- Trust, Respect & Ethos of Caring
- Importance of Race
- Community Welfare
- Parental Involvement

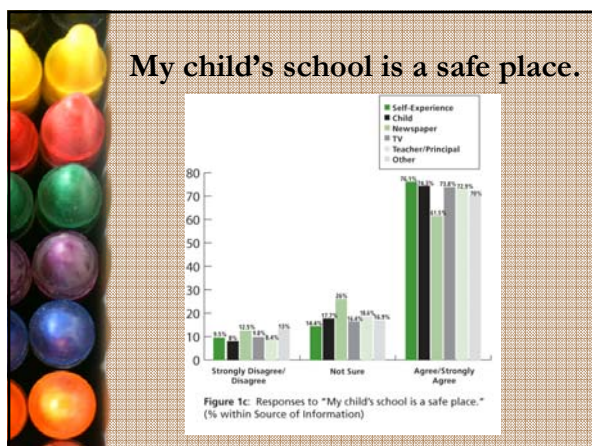

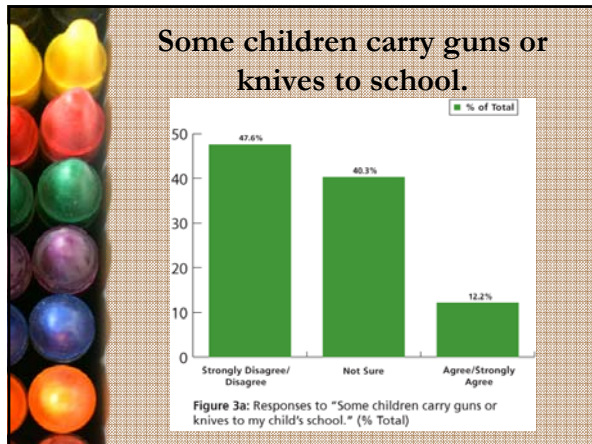

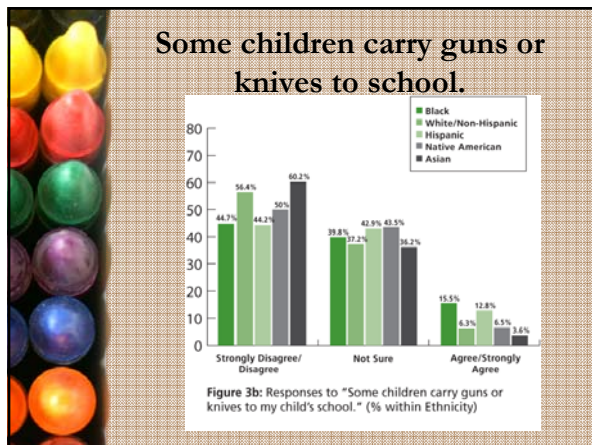

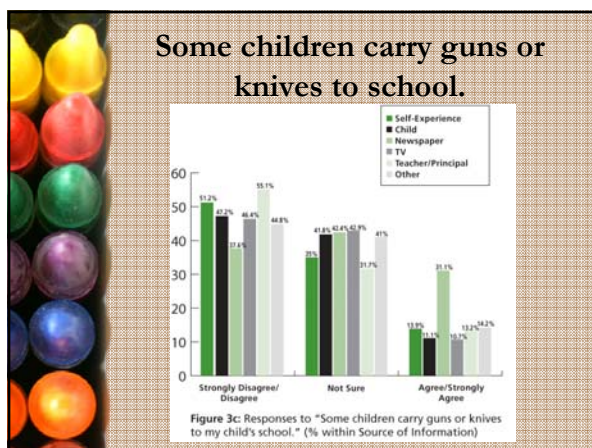

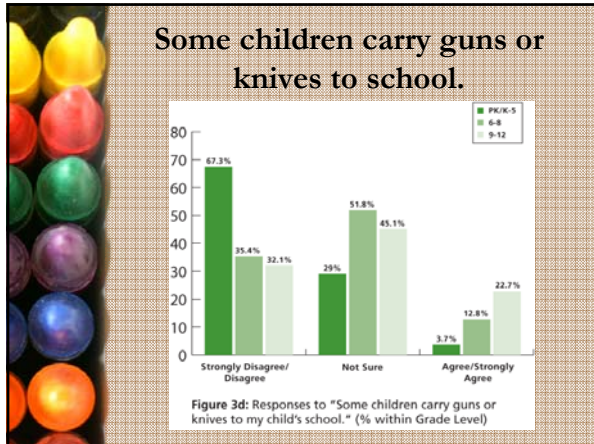

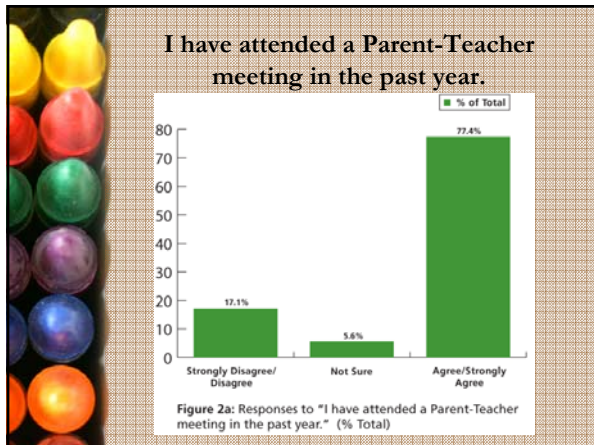

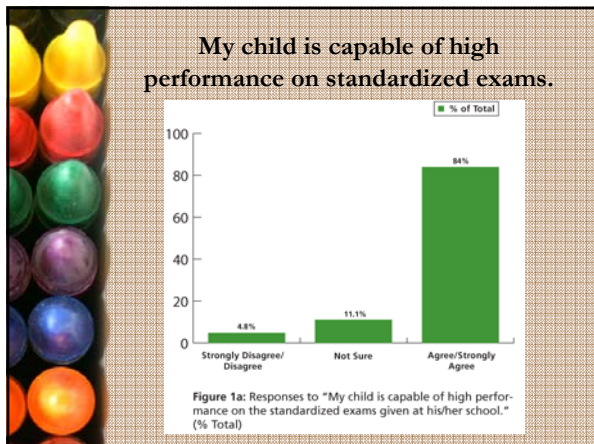

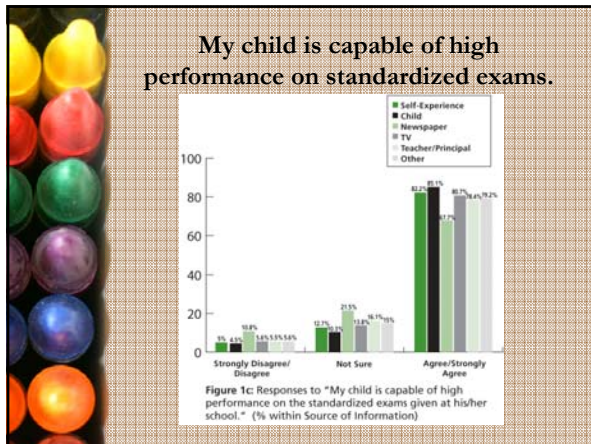

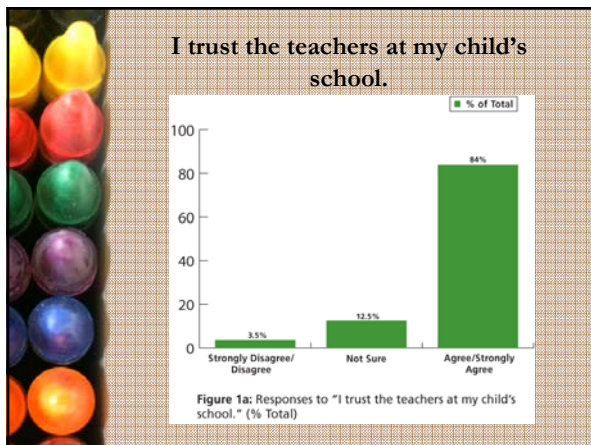

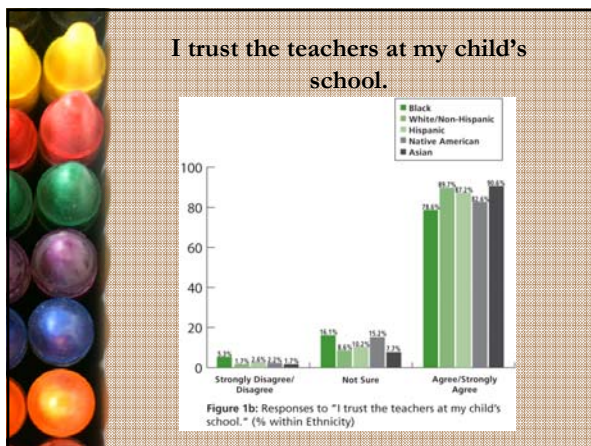

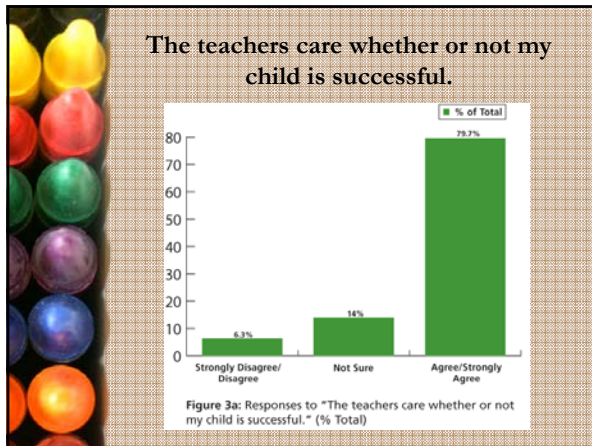

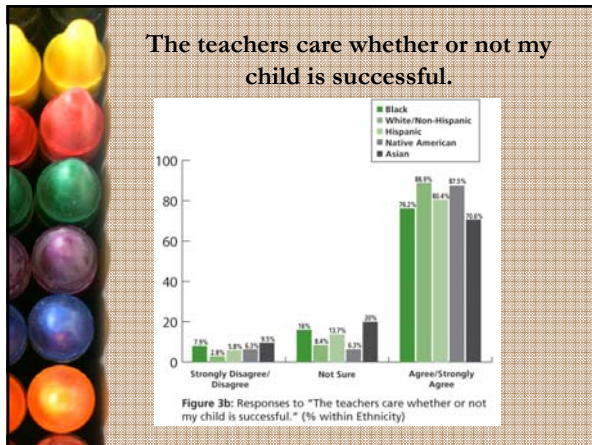

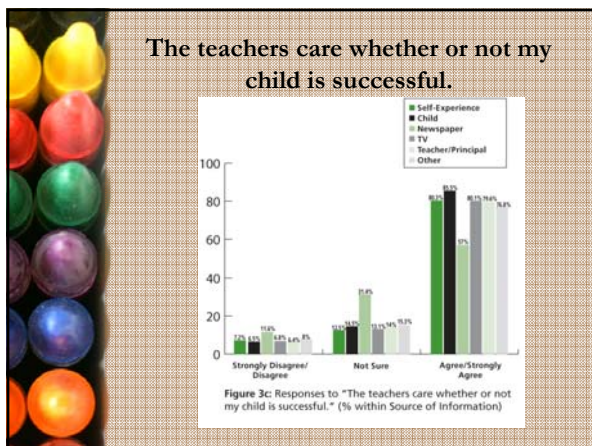

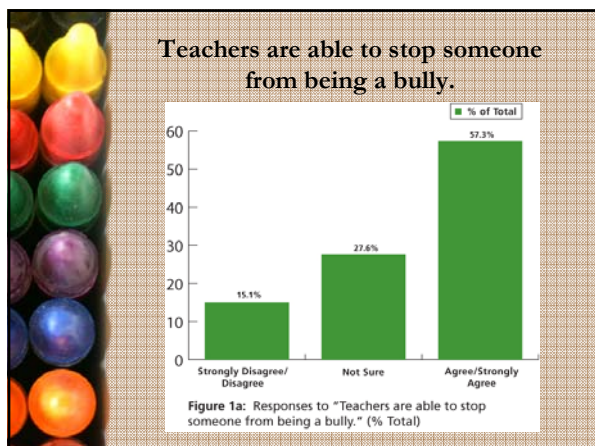

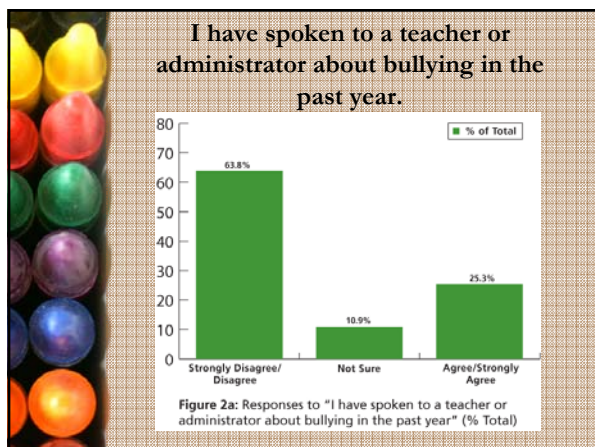

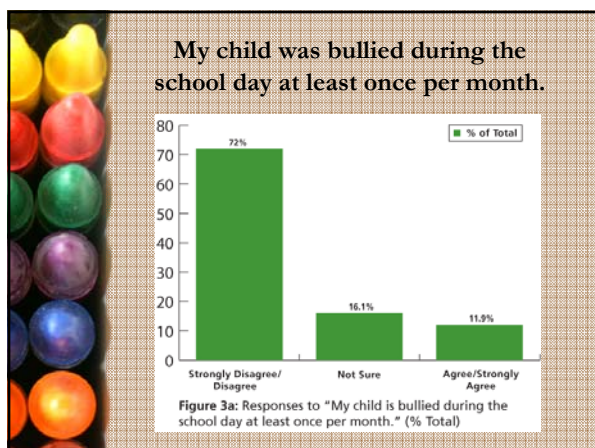

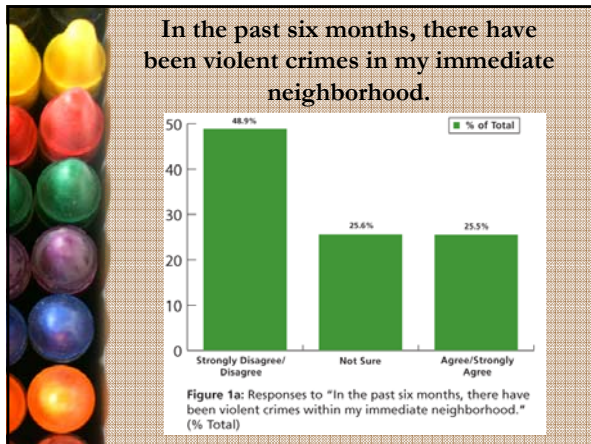

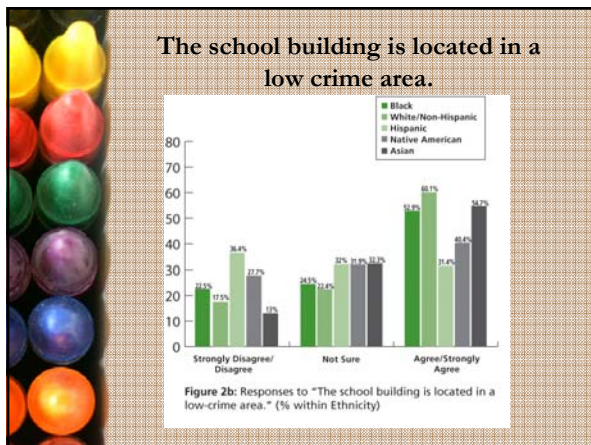

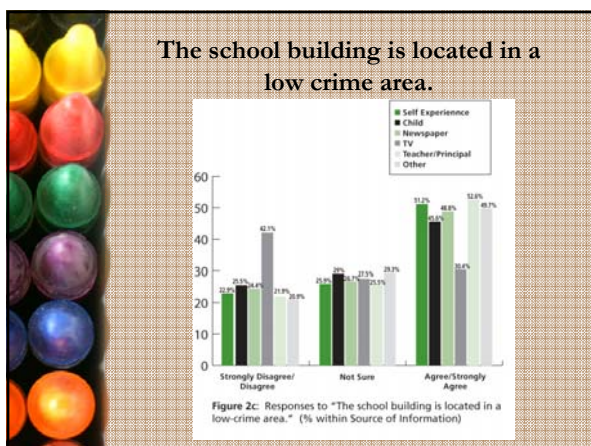

CLIP®

- Diagnosis
- Planning
- Programming

CLIP (Climate Improvement Process) is a registered trademark of the Center for the Study of School Climate

Recommendations

- Annual Assessment of School Climate*
- Structured Dialogue between Stakeholders
- Professional Development for Teachers and Administrators
- Climate Improvement Goals Required on Annual School Plans

Dr. Brian K. Perkins
 Center for the Study of School Climate
 97 Dyer Street
 New Haven, CT 06511

 203.606.7624
 brianperkins@doctor.com
